Reading	Math	Social/Science	Word Work	Specialist
Have someone read you a story and draw a picture of what happened at the beginning, middle, and end of the story.	Using your deck of cards choose two playing cards and tell a math story with them. Ex. One dog and three pigs are on the farm. How many animals all together?	Talk about your five senses. Find items in your house that go with each sense.	Copy a sentence from a story, cut it apart, mix it up and then put it in order	ART - Look for the Homeroom post from Mrs. Nyhammer for today's art activity. Post a picture of your work or bring it into class. If you don't have internet, look for geometric shapes around your home! See how many you can find! Look for squares, circles, ovals, rectangles, triangles, rhombus, stars, octagons, hexagons, and semi-circles! Draw a picture with them as well!
What is the middle sound of these words? zip hug bed hop tan	Practice writing your numbers to 30 in a fun way.	Find 3 household objects and explain a different way to use each one to someone in your family (a toothbrush could be a microphone).	Write the ABC's in reverse order (Zz-Aa) Circle the vowels in red and circle the consonants in blue	MUSIC - Look for the Homeroom post from Mrs. Woods for today's music activity. If you'd like, post a picture or video of your work. If you don't have internet, sing the last song you learned in music while tapping the beat.
Read a book to someone special.	Count to 75 by 1's, 5's and 10's while using movement.	Do something kind for someone else and write about it.	Say a word from the list to your child and have him/her write it in a fun way (paint, snow, shaving cream, flour) bug, win, mat, red, top, frog, dish, stop, flat	Phy. Ed. -Look for the homeroom post from Mrs. Maloney or Ms. Bergen for today's PE activity. Post a picture or video of your activity. Temperature permitting- put on your winter gear and go outside to play for 60 minutes.
Choose a book and discuss sentence structure. Capitalization, spacing, punctuation, # of words in a sentence	Put together a puzzle.	List 5 ways you show Star Pride at home.	Play Lexia for 20 minutes.	STEAM - Look for the Homeroom post from Mrs. Potts for today's STEAM activity. Post a picture of your work or bring it into class. If you don't have internet, build a bridge. Be creative with your materials. What can your bridge hold?
