

About Archbishop Riordan High School

Archbishop Riordan High School is an urban Catholic high school, owned by the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of San Francisco and conducted by the Society of Mary, the Marianists, who are assisted by lay men and women. ARHS prepares young men and women of San Francisco, the surrounding communities and various countries from around the world for leadership through its inclusive college preparatory curriculum. ARHS fosters development in faith, character, academics, the arts and athletics, in a diverse and inclusive family environment.

Position: Science Teacher

The Science Department at Archbishop Riordan High School has an opening for a full-time science teacher. We are transitioning to a co-educational model, so applicable experience is desired. Specific classes will be determined as we finalize enrollment and need for our new model.

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree or higher in a science related field
- At least one year of high school teaching experience preferred
- Teaching credential preferred
- Ability to effectively collaborate with faculty, students and staff
- Understanding of the mission and values of Archbishop Riordan High School and the Archdiocese of San Francisco

Compensation

Based on the Collective Bargaining Agreement. Initial placement for salary will be based on postgraduate units and years of experience.

To apply, please email your cover letter and resume to:

Ms. Colleen O'Rourke, Science Department Chair

corourke@riordanhs.org

The Archdiocese of San Francisco adheres to the following policy: "All employees of the Archdiocese of San Francisco and Department of Catholic Schools shall be employed without regard to race, color, sex, ethnic or national origin and will consider for employment, qualified applicants with criminal histories." (Administrative Handbook #4111.4)