

Kindergarten-4th Grade, Social Studies, Learning Activities and Resources

Directions: K- 4th graders can work on Social Studies three times per week.

Studies Weekly is a curricular resource for grades K-6. It is a newspaper-like reading with activities for students to complete. Parents and students can sign up for a free digital trial of Studies Weekly for 90 days. Click here to sign up. https://app.studiesweekly.com/online/free_trial	The Smithsonian Tween Tribune has articles on a variety of topics with questions and quizzes at the end for students to complete. At the top of each article are different Lexile scores, the lower the score the easier the reading. https://www.tweentribune.com/	Time for Kids- this has digital articles, videos, and some assessments, often with information in Spanish. The resources are available for students in grades Kindergarten to 6th. There are free resources available. https://www.timeforkids.com/
Write a journal entry to someone who lives outside of Oklahoma and describe what they would experience.	Students can interview a family or community member to write, or draw, an oral history. Students should ask about a historical event (including questions such as who, what, when, where, why and how). The student can also ask how the historical event impacted the life of the person they are interviewing.	Draw a detailed map of a room in your house and share it with someone.
