9-12	If your older child is just learning English, Duolingo can help support their English language development through quick lessons focused on reading, writing, speaking, and listening. After your child is done, with their Duolingo lesson, talk with them about the words and phrases they studied and encourage them to use those words throughout the day.	https://www.duolingo.com/
9-12	Smithsonian TweenTribune helps students learn about topics interesting to children in grades K-12. Encourage your child to read an article to you or their sibling and talk about the questions at the end. TweenTribune is also available in Spanish--families are encouraged to read and talk about articles in their home language.	https://www.tweentribune.com/
9-12	If your high school child is just learning English, USALearns has activities to help them learn reading, writing, speaking, and listening skills using real life scenarios. Navigation of the website is available in Spanish and English. Encourage your child to complete lessons daily and discuss with you the new words they learned. Families can also discuss the scenarios presented in the video in their home language.	https://www.usalearns.org/
9-12	Freerice is an English language vocabulary game that helps students review and develop vocabulary skills. To help your child learn new words, play the game with them and talk about the words as you learn together. For each right answer, the World Food Programme helps people who suffer from hunger.	https://freerice.com/
9-12	Khan Academy helps students learn about science, social studies, math, English, and even SAT test preparation. Khan Academy is available in several languages, including Spanish. Talk with your child about what they enjoy learning about in school or look at grade level classes and work together to complete lessons and learn new skills.	https://www.khanacademy.org/
