

Dear Primary and Lower School Parents,

Happy First Day of Spring! I am writing to thank you for your support during the last week in getting our students ready for remote learning. We could not do our work without your tremendous help!

Our first two days of remote learning went really well, and we received great feedback on the engaging work that was being done and the excitement by both students and teachers as they connected online. The Zoom platform has been a wonderful tool for us!

I also want to take a moment to shout out the faculty and share my appreciation for the incredible work they have done, and will continue to do, to prepare lessons for the students. I am so impressed by their creativity and can-do attitude. The tagline we have adopted recently is: "We got this!", and the Primary and Lower School faculty have certainly risen to the challenge.

As we gear up for more remote learning that will begin again on March 30, you will hear from me on Sunday, March 29 with updates and ideas for us to stay engaged.

I wish you all a restful break with loved ones. Please be safe and stay healthy.

Best,

Rachel
