Dear Parents and Guardians,

My friends, these are certainly strange and challenging times. Though we are all struggling with the daily disruptions to our lives and livelihood, I want to assure you of Cardinal Gibbons' continued and unfailing support. The education of youth is our sacred mission and to this mission, we will remain true. I want to assure you that our great school will continue to serve your students with daily instruction that will keep them engaged in their studies, and provide them with a sense of confidence and purpose in the days and weeks ahead.

With that said, please know that Cardinal Gibbons will continue with distance learning after the conclusion of Spring Break on Monday, March 30. We will observe Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter Monday. All school-related activities scheduled through April 19 are either canceled or postponed. Cardinal Gibbons will inform you of any changes or addendums to this schedule as it comes to us from the Archdiocese of Miami. Like you, we continue to carefully monitor the news related to COVID-19 and the recommendations of health authorities

I cannot say enough about our teachers and staff, and the service they continue to provide our students. Though the mode of instruction has changed (at least for the time being) the quality of education remains. Working from home, teachers and students demonstrate what excellence in education is all about.

Let us turn to God, who watches over us in His infinitely wise and loving Providence. In our struggles may we remember Christ, who faced the ultimate trials of betrayal, condemnation, suffering and death. He is our model, our guide and our refuge.

Yours in Christ,

Tom Mahon
President & CEO
