Write a daily diary. Include the date and start each entry with 'Dear Diary'. Remember to write in first person and past tense, including your thoughts and feelings.	Explore the United Kingdom on google Earth. Can you find the four capital cities and famous landmarks?	Write out a set of instructions for an activity or game. Include time connectives (First, then, next) and the imperative verb (pour, grate, put, roll)
Create a timetable of your day. Include timings using o'clock and half past.	Read a book and write a book review about it. What was it about? Who were the characters? Where was it set? What was your favourite part?	Create a piece of artwork of your environment using shapes and colours. We have looked at the incredible work of David Hockney in class.
Log on to mathletics and complete assigned tasks. https://login.mathletics.com/	Explore measurements around the home. This could be weighing ingredients or exploring height and length.	Create your own character to take on adventures.
Use your spelling words to write silly sentences. Challenge someone in your house to make a sillier sentence!	Log on to times tables rock stars and see how many coins you can earn. https://trockstars.com/	Create an obstacle course, think about the different balances and rotations you may need to complete.
