ASB Exchange with Other Schools
February 4, 2017, from 8am-2pm

- Attendees: San Marino High School, Mark Keppel High School, San Gabriel High School
- Inspired by CADA Leadership Camp
- Primary goal: spread ideas, strengthen each other's ASBs, implement change onto school campus
- Influenced other ASBs to use our ideas in their schools

Oak ASB and TCHS ASB Exchange

- Reached out to Oak to have a joint exchange
- promote outreach within Temple City
- Exchanged ideas and introduced incoming students to high school
- Had pairings within different committees
- Engaged them with various games and activities

Freshman Class - Spring Showcase

- Allowed incoming 9th graders to see all that the High School has to offer
- Participation from all the electives (tables, classrooms, and presentations)
- involved Link Crew and the Peer Listeners
- students and parents had a chance to ask questions and get more information about high school

Sophomore Class -Winter Formal

- Aimed to present an inclusive event
- Activities other than dancing: a horse and carriage, a cotton candy vendor, and a photobooth.

Future Plans

Assemblies Committee: STEAM Expo

- April 21st, 2017 (3PM-7PM)
- The whole community participated, a majority of youth from all schools
- Activities that encompassed STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, and Mathematics)
- Cooperated with Curriculum Coordinator, Soomin Chao, as well as multiple teachers district-wide

TCHS School End Year Review

Pros:

- Umbrellas for tables
- Big ASS fans
- Construction is almost done
- Huge improvement in lunches
- Communication with admin/district is better
- Articulation with other schools

Cons:

- Construction inconveniences: noise during AP testing; smell
- WiFi: dead zones, inconsistent coverage
- Parking lot inefficiencies: no designated student drop-off, need more entrance/exit signs

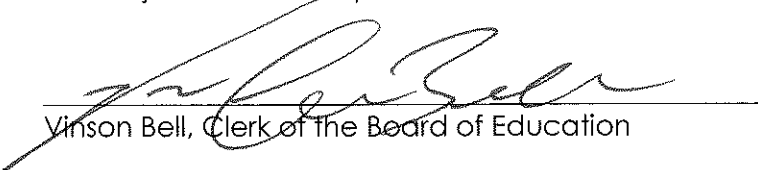

Board members and administrators thanked ASB for such a successful year. They were also very impressed by all the different clubs and activities and look forward to what next year's ASB will bring to the table. They were also very proud of ASB's effort in getting more of the student body involved.
