The Big Picture With Fr. Bob

Dear Friends,

One of the hymns which brings much comfort to those who are suffering is “Be Not Afraid.” The refrain has the following words, “Be not afraid, I go before you always. Come follow me and I will give you rest.”

These words take on new meaning as we go through these unprecedented times. I was talking to a priest yesterday and he said, “I’ve only used the word ‘unprecedented’ about twice in my life and now I keep saying it to describe everything that is taking place!”

Yes, unprecedented times can be scary. However, Jesus wants us to take our fears to Him. He can provide us peace in every situation.

The governor has now called us to stay home and stay safe. Again, our mobility and our everyday opportunities are being seriously restricted. We may feel we have been stripped bare of our religious rights. I think Jesus is again telling us “Be not afraid, I am with you.” Yes, we are not able to gather for Mass, but we can prayerfully watch Mass on TV or on one of the many Masses offered on social media. See page 6. I know it is not the same as attending Mass and having the honor of receiving our Lord in Holy Communion. It is a great sorrow and sacrifice we all need to make in order to slow down the spread of the Coronavirus.

As of the time I am writing this article (Tuesday, March 24,) we are still able to keep our church open for prayer. We also plan to continue with the Confession schedule on Tuesdays 5-6 PM and Saturdays 2-4PM. Some of us will be hearing Confessions in different parts of the church so as to strive to keep everyone safe. We will probably be wearing masks. Please feel free to wear a mask if you prefer, but this is not mandatory.

I encourage everyone to read the letter written by Archbishop Allen Vigneron which we have printed in today’s bulletin (page 4). It is clear that this Lent is like no other. Our Holy Week services will not be open to parishioners, but we hope to livestream services online.

President Trump has said we are at war, at war with this virus. We have all heard of the great sacrifices made as a nation during World War II. This is a very different kind of war, but sacrifices will need to be made by all.

I am sorry to tell you that at this time Funeral Masses have been discontinued. At this time, Fr. Matt and I will only be able to do Committal services at graveside. If you are preparing a funeral of a loved one, it is important that you call the parish rectory office so we can confirm what are the latest guidelines that we are receiving from the Archdiocese.

These are hard times, painful times. We will get through them together. Please remember to support our parish by way of your parish envelopes, if at all possible. Mail them to the parish office at 1055 N. Silvery Lane, Dearborn, MI 48128, or contribute online at faithdirect.net. Many thanks to those who have already made contributions.

May we hold each other in prayer. Every person, every family has their own struggle, be it financial, emotional, spiritual, or physical. This is a great time for us to go deeper in our relationship with Jesus. Remember to pray, read the Bible, pray the Rosary, read the lives of the saints. This is the time to become a prayer warrior. (Let’s wear out our beads on our rosaries!) Let us hold each other up in prayer.

Before we conclude, we want to thank our entire parish/schools’ team that are working in new and creative ways to serve our people and, in special way, our students.

P.S. Fr. Matt and I are posting videos on our parish website, check them out.

God’s Peace and Consolation,

Fr. Bob and Fr. Matt

March 23, 2020

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As citizens of Michigan, we join with our neighbors in observing measures to address the spread of COVID-19. As we continue to practice social distancing to limit the virus' spread, our response as the Body of Christ must always begin in faith. We believe Jesus is still Lord. We believe that God can bring good from this time. We believe that we are not abandoned but remain – however mysteriously – in the loving hands of the Father.

It is with great sadness that I have to announce to you that Holy Week celebrations will not be offered publicly this year in the Archdiocese of Detroit. To ensure we cooperate with and support the governor and local health officials during this time as well as assuring you of my continued commitment to the work of unleashing the Gospel, I am issuing these directives regarding the life of our parishes, the administration of the Sacraments – particularly to those who are sick and dying – and the celebration of Holy Week.

While it is not possible for us to gather in our parishes during Holy Week and on Easter, it is possible for us to be connected in other ways. I ask you to remain attentive to aod.org and spiritualcloseness.org for ways to be connected with each other during these days. I would also ask you to please continue your financial support to your parish. They rely entirely on your contributions and your generosity. I am very grateful for your support, especially during this time.

I know this is an unprecedented time in the life of our local Church. But unprecedented challenges bring unprecedented graces. If we unite ourselves to the Lord we will emerge from these days of trial and uncertainty more ready to proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Please know of my prayers for you and our whole State of Michigan during these days. Asking the intercession of Our Lady of Lourdes, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

The Most Reverend Allen H. Vigneron
Archbishop of Detroit

Finding Grace Through Spiritual Communion When We Can't Receive the Eucharist

Attending Mass and receiving the Eucharist is always a privilege. With our new guidelines to protect the health of each other, we are not able to attend Mass in person.

Archbishop Vigneron, in his homily on the Third Sunday of Lent, points to the thirst of Jesus at the well of the Samaritan woman as a thirst to meet us in the Eucharist. That at this time, “we can’t satisfy, through our reception of holy communion today, our thirst for communion with God.”

Yet, we are disciples. And as such “we need to look for the grace in this cross we experience, of being without the celebration of the Eucharist publicly in these days.”

Archbishop Vigneron offers three suggestions about how we can find the grace in this trial.

1. This is an opportunity to renew our gratitude for the Eucharist. To come to a new and profound appreciation for what a blessing the Holy Eucharist is, a blessing we too often take for granted.
2. We ought to be resolved not to grow accustomed to its absence of the celebration of the Eucharist in public.
3. We are invited to make spiritual communion regularly.

Spiritual Communion

Spiritual Communion is a pious practice in the history of the Church. As the Archbishop stated, “it is simply to ask the Lord Jesus to give us the graces that would come to us were we able to receive his body and blood, soul and divinity sacramentally. We ask God to work in our hearts, the Holy Spirit to work in us, to do what he would be doing if we were to be receiving the sacrament.”

We therefore are encouraged to be resolved every Sunday, and every day, as we are suspended from our public assemblies, to make a spiritual communion. Above all, the Archbishop asks, that we do this in our families and that we do it together.

Elements of a Spiritual Communion

- Begin with the Sign of the Cross
- Scripture reading (e.g. Mass readings, found at usccb.org or listen/watch televised Mass. Options can be found here.)
- Optional: Share a reflection on the reading together (e.g. What do you hear God saying?)
- Shared prayer (e.g. Lord’s Prayer, Hail Mary)
- Spontaneous prayer (e.g. Prayers from the heart, for each other and our community)
- Recite the Spiritual Communion prayer together, followed by a moment of silence to receive the Lord
- Conclude with the Sign of the Cross

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally,

Come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace you as if you were already there.

And unite myself wholly to you.

Never permit me to be separated from you.

Amen.

BE THE MATCH® Be The Match. Save a Life.

The son of DC Parishioners, Clyde & Fran Parrott, needs a match, a stem cell match. Matt Parrott has Lymphoma and is looking for a match for a stem cell transplant. He graduated from DC Elementary School and is a 1994 graduate of Catholic Central High School. He is currently a Philosophy Professor at Oxford University in England, husband and father of two little girls. We are asking our Divine Child Family to help us find a match for Matt and offer hope, would you?

Joining the Be The Match Registry® means volunteering to be listed as a potential blood stem cell donor and be the cure. You could be Matt's cure. You could literally save a life, Matt's Life or another's! Testing only requires a cheek swab which can be done at home. It's easy!

CHURCH OF THE DIVINE CHILD

10 GUIDEPOSTS FOR CHRISTIANS IN THE TIME OF THE CORONAVIRUS PANDEMIC

Archbishop Allen H. Vigneron

1. No Time Is Without Its Grace

Christ's death and rising is a grace that should shape every day of a Christian's life, and above all in these days. In this time of trial we are called to seize the grace of showing ourselves, by the power of the Spirit of Christ, to be, like Christ, filled with faith in God's care for us.

2. This Is The Lent God Our Father Wants Us to Have

This second guidepost is a sort of corollary to the first. God in Christ is the Lord of history. He's in charge. His providential plan for our salvation and happiness cannot be defeated. If he has permitted us to have to be for a while without our public celebration of the Holy Eucharist and our usual Lenten devotions, his Spirit offers us other means to prepare ourselves for Holy Week and the Paschal Triduum.

3. It's Still About Unleashing The Gospel

Right now all of us, especially us pastors and our co-workers, are focused on responding to the coronavirus pandemic. But that doesn't mean our work to "unleash the Gospel" has been abandoned. Quite the contrary. We still must be about evangelization. That's always our mission. This is a providential time for us to witness to our sure confidence in Jesus as Lord of history, to manifest to the world that we face this challenge with unshakeable trust that the Lord will sustain us.

4. Now Is The Hour Of The Domestic Church

At Synod 16 the Holy Spirit said clearly that the Christian family, as the "domestic church," has to be at the center of the New Evangelization. In these days when our large public gatherings for prayer and catechesis are suspended, the domestic church is all the more clearly "ground zero" for our response. Now it falls squarely on families to make their homes places to hear the Word of God, and to offer him praise, especially in acts of Spiritual Communion and entrustment to the protection of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

5. Holiness Works With Science

We must resist any idea that there's some sort of divorce between our cooperating with public health officials to mitigate the spread of the virus and our complete trust in God's power to protect us. This guidepost is a variation on the axiom that "nature builds on grace." Our wholehearted cooperation with the civil authorities involves acts of Christian virtue: acts of justice in doing our part to protect the common good, and acts of charity because our motive is love for God and neighbor.

6. We're Called To Accompany Our Neighbors

I've "cribbed" this "guidepost" and the one that follows from the pastoral wisdom of Pope Francis. Each of us, especially in our families, faces fears about what the future holds for us as the spread of the virus unfolds. But we're not alone in this. Some of us will become seriously ill, and undoubtedly there will be fatalities — along with all of the suffering that follows for those with loved ones who become ill. Many of us face the prospect of economic troubles, the loss of jobs, the collapse of businesses, with all the trials these misfortunes entail. We must support one another in this time of trouble, not only with sympathy but with ready acts of practical kindness — that is, works of mercy.

7. We're Obligated To Care For Those "On The Peripheries"

Here, too, I'm echoing a theme dear to the heart of Pope Francis. The pains caused by the pandemic will fall particularly hard on the poor, the elderly and the chronically ill. We Christians have a particular duty to care for them. One simple but much needed work of mercy will be to stay in touch (by phone?) with the elderly who are quarantined. We should be sure that "social distancing" doesn't result in losing "spiritual closeness." Not least should we remember that many of the inconveniences we experience in order to mitigate the spread of the virus are aimed at protecting the vulnerable. With that in mind, it should be easier to be at peace with these inconveniences.

8. Read God's Word Through The Lens Of This Time

The Psalmist says, "O that today you would hear his voice" (Ps 95:7). As you read any passage of Sacred Scripture that is part of your prayer during these days, listen especially for how in his word God is speaking directly to you about how to find the grace he offers in this time (see No. 1 above). He wants to speak to your heart: to offer his wisdom about what this crisis means, his guidance about how to respond, his assurance that "all things work for good for those who love [him]" (Rm 8:28). He is close; listen for him.

9. Our First "Touchstone" Is Eucharistic Communion

During this time when the public celebration of Holy Mass has to be suspended, we need the graces of the Eucharist more than ever. For these are the graces whereby the Holy Spirit works in our lives — through our dying to self and living for the Father that is Jesus's Paschal Mystery. These graces can be available to us through Spiritual Communion. Please pray for Spiritual Communion in the fruits of Christ's sacrifice at least every Sunday, if not more often. And gather as a family to pray together for this Communion.

10. Our Second "Touchstone" Is Our Lady's Protection

From the cross, Jesus gave us his Mother to be ours. In every age — from the days before Pentecost until today — the Church has been blessed through the Mother of God interceding for us, from her being close to us with her care and protection. Let us renew our commitment to "fly to her protection." I invite you to join with me in praying the "Memorare" on page 6, every day to commend not only the Church but also our country, indeed the whole world, to the loving care of the Blessed Virgin Mary. And, I follow the admonitions of Blessed Solanus Casey, "thanking God ahead of time" for the graces he will give us in answer to her prayers, and I will work to build a Lourdes Grotto on the grounds of our Cathedral of the Most Blessed Sacrament as a token of appreciation for what I am sure he will do for us through her intercession.

Keep your eyes fixed on Jesus (Heb 12:1)

That's the best way I can summarize what I believe we need to do to come out of this pandemic as the daughters and sons God calls us to be.

Keep focused on Jesus' example of abandonment into the hands of God the Father.

Keep close to Jesus in prayer.

Keep confident that Jesus is with us in this time of trial.

Keep at peace, for Jesus is Lord, conqueror of sin and death, victor over every evil.

PLEASE PRAY FOR OUR LOVED ONES IN THE MILITARY

"Heavenly Father, protect these members of our Armed Forces.

Be their constant companion and their strength in battle, their refuge in every adversity. Guide them, Lord, so that they may return home safely." Amen.
