

If you See Say Do

Something Something Something

Social Distancing is necessary to contain the spread of Covid-19 but may lead to increased isolation and danger for some. Loss of income, stability and childcare may be added stress and anxiety which may lead to increased violence/risks in the home.

If you need help, we encourage you to have a safety plan. Call us.

- For domestic violence & sexual assault: Elizabeth Freeman Center
1- 866-401-2425
- For child abuse: Department of Children & Families
1-800-292-5022
- For victims of crime: Berkshire District Attorney's Office
1-855-275-8927
- National Domestic Violence Hotline: 1-800-799-7233
- National Suicide Prevention Hotline: 1-800-273-8255

If you are concerned for someone's safety, Call/Email/Text/Check in.

Brought to you by DSV Task Force, Berkshire District Attorney's Office, Berkshire Immigrant Center & Elizabeth Freeman Center

In an emergency, call 911