

Read Like an Expert

Visit StorylineOnline.net and choose a story to listen to. As the story is read, talk about how they are making the story interesting to listen to. What might you try in your own reading?

Word Hunt!

Sight Word Hunt:

Use your Word Wall Chart that was sent home on our last day and find them in the books that you read. You can also use them in your writing!

		A all an and as at any a	B ball by but big back beat b	C can come came c
D did do d	E eat e	F for fun f	G get go got going g	H had has here his have home h
I in is it I'm into if i	J jump just j	K k	L like look let little l	M my make more m
N no not now never n	O on out of or o	P play put p	Q q	R run read r
S see she so said say saw same s	T this to then they take three there today think t	U up us u	V very v	W we went will where with w
X x	Y you yes your y	Z z	☆ Name _____

Vowel Team Hunt:

Use the Vowel Team Chart included in this week's lesson and find them in the books that you read. You can also use them in your writing!

My Vowel Teams Chart
ee  bee	ea  read	ai  rain
ay  lay	oa  boat	ou  cloud
ow  cow	oo  book	oo  moon
oi  coin	oy  toy	ew  drew
ue  clue	aw  paw	au  launch