

South Texas ISD Curriculum Communication Process

The South Texas ISD Curriculum Communication Process was initiated to improve communication across the district around common curriculum content. The process is as important as the products. It is the belief of South Texas ISD that curriculum should not be developed by one person in isolation, or by individuals outside of South Texas ISD, but rather all South Texas ISD teachers of a subject working together.

