

South Texas ISD

Health Professions

Credit by Acceleration

- The District will give a student in grades 7-12 credit for an academic subject in which the student has received no prior instruction if the student scores 80 percent or above and the student successfully completes the credit by acceleration before the course starts during the regular school year.
- The District shall provide four test windows annually when examinations for acceleration will be administered in grades 7-12.