

Editors,

The Northshore School District is excited to announce to the community that it will host Northshore Speaks, an evening of spoken word for students and staff to share their voice. This evening event is an effort to connect, reflect and hear multiple perspectives from our Northshore community.

Please let us know if we can be of further assistance.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Northshore School District Presents Northshore Speaks

An evening of spoken word by students and staff

Bothell, Wash. – The Northshore School District is hosting Northshore Speaks from 6:00 - 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, April 29 for students and staff to share their own spoken word poetry. The event location is to be determined or it will be held on Northshore's Virtual Stage.

In addition to the event and in honor of National Poetry Month, spoken word entries will be highlighted on the District's Facebook and Instagram pages during the month of April.

Original spoken word poems submitted to Flipgrid before 5 p.m. on Thursday, April 16 will be considered for the Northshore Speaks event. Northshore students and staff should log in to Flipgrid using their Northshore School District account. If an entry is selected, District Communications will connect directly with the student and their family, or the staff member.

If students and staff are not interested in speaking, they are more than welcome to attend. The community is encouraged to reserve tickets as seating may be limited, depending on whether the event is held on campus or virtually. The event is suitable for Northshore families.

This evening event is an effort to connect, reflect and hear multiple perspectives from the Northshore community.
