

You Are Writers!

Write a Small Moment Story:

Finding Ideas for True Stories

- Think of a person or place that matters to you.
- Make a list of small moments
- Choose one idea
- Write your story and share

You are story tellers!

Write an Informational Book:

How to Write an Informational Book

- Think of a topic you know a lot about
- Organize your information and make a table of contents
- Plan your chapters before you write them
- Think, "What will interest the people I'm teaching?"
- Write your draft including specific details and share

You are experts!

Writing in Response to Reading:

- If you could be the main character from one of your favorite books, who would you be? Write about an adventure you would have.
- Write to a friend or pretend you have a pen pal. What is something interesting that you learned from your reading that you would like to tell or teach them?

