

Suggested Online Resources

1.

Free Online Books, Reference Databases, and Tutors

As a student at Enumclaw High School you automatically have a Student Account with the King County Library System! With this account you have access to free tutoring, eBooks, audiobooks, and reference databases. To access these phenomenal resources just follow the steps below.

1. Start by clicking this link:

<https://kcls.org/middle-high-school-college-students/>

2. Available resources will show up in three different boxes. Click on the box with the resource you want to access.
3. Sign in to your student account using the following:

Library Card/Username: 216_____

(216 followed by student ID including leading zero)

PIN: _____

(last four of student ID)

<https://www.oercommons.org/curated-collections>

3.

Free Online Classes

Khan Academy provides free online classes for all! Try a new course, brush up on an old course, or supplement a current course. There is also a daily learning schedule that students and parents can follow during this time to help bring structure learning to your home! Plus, Khan Academy is available in over 40 languages. Below are the links for the Khan Academy homepage and the daily learning schedule where you can begin your epic learning journey from the comfort of your home!

<http://khanacademy.org>

Class
Schedule

<https://www.khanacademy.org/about/blog/ppos/611770255064350720/remote-learning-with-khan->