

Studio Art

Madison O'Bagy

PORTFOLIO REVIEW REQUIRED

This course is designed for advanced art students who may desire art to be a part of their future. A strong emphasis will be placed on preparing a portfolio in a variety of mediums. We will also participate in art competitions as the opportunities arise, as resume building opportunities. This is an honors class and does have a rigorous curriculum. Students will also present an art show and learn about curating their work. There is a class fee of $15 and at times students may want to supply additional materials for pieces as they see fit.

Students for this class are chosen based on a portfolio review. You will need to prepare a portfolio of 5-10 pieces of your own artwork to submit for review. This portfolio should showcase a variety of mediums and subjects so we can see the range of your abilities. You also need to include a brief written statement about why you want to be in the class and your artistic interests.

Your portfolio will need to be submitted Digitally by April 17th.

Instructions for submission:

1. Photograph your artwork clearly (5-10 images)
 - a. Try to leave as little room around the artwork as possible in the photo (crop to edges if possible)
 - b. Make sure your artwork is well lit and has no shadows being cast on it.
2. Create a Folder in your Onedrive, titled with your "first name Last name Art Portfolio" (Ex: Madison O'Bagy Art Portfolio)
3. Put 5-10 images of your artwork In that folder
4. Also include a document with a brief explanation about why you want to be in this advanced class and what artistic interests you have in life (brief maybe 1 paragraph)
 - a. This could also be in the form of a photograph if it is easier to handwrite
5. Share that Onedrive folder with me mabradford@dsdmail.net before April 17th
 - a. Make sure I have permissions to view the folder
