

Argument & Advocacy - What does it mean?

To argue means to strongly give information about something you strongly believe in.

To advocate means to public recommend or stand up to for something

In this unit, you will research something that you feel strongly about.

You will gather evidence to support your claim.

Then you will advocate for your side in a DEBATE!

This week you will be reading about many different topics.

Click on this link to see how this will work.