Happy Spring Break!

Hello W.E.S. families! With spring break here staying home all week might not sound ideal to everyone, but we have some great ideas that may help you find the fun you are looking for! Read through our activities, and see if there is something that might help you stay busy!

Get Outside and Enjoy Some Fresh Air!

Why not have an outdoor scavenger hunt?! Gather your family members and search for a list of items. Below is a list you can use, or come up with your own! Take turns being the captain in charge of hiding the items!

BACKYARD SCAVENGER HUNT 🔎 □ a bucket something prickly ☐ 3 kinds of leaves something yellow a seed something you can eat ☐ 2 sticks something that smells good 🥦 a bug something round a weed something smooth ☐ something green

Put on a Show!

You can perform shows, plays, sing-alongs, or magic tricks. Basically anything that allows you to put on a costume or to get dressed up!

Here is a link for some really cool magic tricks!

Listen to a podcast!

Want to keep your mind interested? Listening to a podcast is a great way to do this. No matter what you're interested in, there is a podcast for you! Check out some great podcasts in the link below.

Spread Some Cheer!

Photos have surfaced in multiple countries, including the United States, United Kingdom, Italy, and Canada, of kids painting rainbows and posting them in their windows to cheer up people passing by. You can make your own rainbow to hang in your window. Or draw a rainbow with chalk in your driveway!

Enjoy your spring break and stay well.
We miss you!!
