

Dear Wellesley Classmates,

As we write this, our 45th Reunion is only 130 days off. We hope to see all of you there (wouldn't that be something?). And we hope to see all of your stories, your achievements and your milestones in the Class of 1973 Record Book.

So this is your final chance to be included. Simply click on this link and fill out the questionnaire.

We also would love to get a photograph or two from each of you. To submit photos digitally, send them to Wellesley1973photos@gmail.com.

We have received several memorials to classmates who have died in the past five years. If you are interested in writing a short memorial (up to 250 words), please contact Betsey (emaupin@cfl.rr.com) or Robin (robinfarabaugh@gmail.com) so that we can coordinate with those who might want to write on the same classmate and get a good idea of how much space we'll need.

Our final deadline to receive your questionnaires is Feb. 15. We hope to hear from all of you. Thanks so much.

Best wishes,
Robin Ingraham Farabaugh and Betsey Maupin

Every woman can—and should—make a meaningful contribution to her world. There is a growing recognition that women's empowerment and leadership are crucial to their own advancement, and to worldwide societal change. Wellesley and its alumnae have supported and championed women's intellectual and social development and autonomy for over 100 years.
