

Wellesley Class of 1973

Dear Class of '73,

Reunion was only two months ago, but most of us have tumbled back to life in the real world. As your new class secretary, I'll be trying to fill the shoes of the wise, warm and wonderful Paula Butturini. So this is my first request to you for your news of what you're doing in that sometimes all-too-real world.

Please let us know what's going on with you — job changes, retirements, family transitions, new challenges, and so on. My deadline is Sept. 1, and I'd love to hear from you as soon as possible. Email me at elizabethmaupin@gmail.com — and, in the meantime, I hope you're having a glorious summer.

All my best,
Betsey Maupin

Every woman can—and should—make a meaningful contribution to her world. There is a growing recognition that women's empowerment and leadership are crucial to their own advancement, and to worldwide societal change. Wellesley and its alumnae have supported and championed women's intellectual and social development and autonomy for over 100 years.
