

Wellesley Class of 1973

Hello Wellesley '73ers,

We are pleased to present you with our 45th Reunion Record Book—online. In keeping with our green class, we determined we could put the record book entirely online and save trees as well as cash. It's available for download to your computers, or if you want a print version you can download it to a thumb/flash drive and take it to be printed at your local office supply store, your office, or at home. At Reunion, in Claflin, we will also have a print edition or two for you to look at, and a pair of thumb/flash drives available for you to take locally to be printed while you're at Wellesley if that seems convenient. We think you'll be pleased with all we included: lots of pictures of us in various adventures and with our families; musings on what the world holds for us next (the Question); wonderful tributes for our deceased classmates, and some amazing headlines from the Wellesley News during our time at college. With a little prodding, those times come freshly back!

Here's what to do to download the Record Book:

First, go to Classes <http://www.wellesley.edu/alumnae/groups/classes>. Log in. Choose 1973. Across the top of the page you'll see a tab "reunion". Choose it, and you should have a drop-down menu that includes the Record Book. Choose that. Here's the URL <https://1973.alum.wellesley.edu/article.html?aid=110> to take you directly there, but you will still need to log in.

Enjoy, and see you soon!

Every woman can—and should—make a meaningful contribution to her world. There is a growing recognition that women's empowerment and leadership are crucial to their own advancement, and to worldwide societal change. Wellesley and its alumnae have supported and championed women's intellectual and social development and autonomy for over 100 years.
