

Wellesley Class of 1973

Class of '73:

Your secretary's Class Notes Cupboard is empty, and my next batch of notes are due Dec. 1. Please lighten my load and send me your contributions as soon as possible. (And if you keep them to 50-75 words, they won't be trimmed much, if at all.) Particularly seeking offerings from all you shy, retiring, or just-too-busy-to-respond classmates!

All the best,
Paula Butturini

Every woman can—and should—make a meaningful contribution to her world. There is a growing recognition that women's empowerment and leadership are crucial to their own advancement, and to worldwide societal change. Wellesley and its alumnae have supported and championed women's intellectual and social development and autonomy for over 100 years.
