

Wellesley Class of 1973

Dear Classmates,

It's hard to believe but our 45th reunion -- on June 8-10, 2018 -- is about a year and a quarter away. We're seeking volunteers who might want to pitch in and help organize, not only the reunion itself, but also the three other areas traditionally associated with reunion year: creation of the class record book, fundraising activities associated with reunion, and chairing the nominating committee to select new class officers who will take office after reunion.

We know that many classmates, who might not have been able to volunteer in past years because of work commitments, are now retired, and might be eager to step up to the plate. But you may be off our "volunteer radar" precisely because of previous work or family commitments. Please don't be shy. Let us know you'd like to help, or if a classmate has indicated interest. You can email your responses to Class President Martha Hinchman at: mhinchman@gmail.com

See you in June 2018!

Every woman can—and should—make a meaningful contribution to her world. There is a growing recognition that women's empowerment and leadership are crucial to their own advancement, and to worldwide societal change. Wellesley and its alumnae have supported and championed women's intellectual and social development and autonomy for over 100 years.
