

EYFS Activity Ideas – Easter holidays and Term 5

A book we recommend... What the ladybird heard. (If you don't have a copy at home you can see Julia Donaldson reading it at this link <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=abKadke35cs>)

Sign for Ladybird

Words of the week.

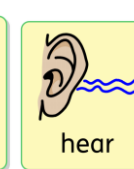

hog

map

ladybird

hear

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=428I9PIED_I

Can you make your own map? It could be of your house, bedroom, a treasure island, a dinosaur wood or a magical land!	Fill a bowl full of water. Find different containers and pour the water from one to another. Which holds the most? Which is the smallest? Can you find things to float and sink?	Go on a sound hunt. Go for a walk, go into the garden or just open a window. What can you hear? What would you be able to hear if you were on a farm?
Mini- disco. Shut the curtains and turn on the music! Try some old and new classics. Agadoo, Saturday night, baby shark. The Badgers may be able to tell you some of their favourites from nursery!	Words of the week: do the words of the week song and talk about what they mean (Badgers should be able to do this with you, but you can use the link below the word of the week)	Choose a story to read together. Can you find an unusual place to read it? Older children- can they retell the story to you?
Gather lots of objects of colours. Can they separate them groups? Can they count how many in each group? What if you take some away- it is still the same? Are there different ways to group them?	Learn the ladybird rhyme below	Make your own ladybird. Draw around something which is a circle. Find different materials to decorate it. Can you make ladybirds with different shapes?

Five little ladybirds, climbing on the door
One flew away and then there were four.
Four little ladybirds, sitting on a tree.
One flew away and then there were three.
Three little ladybirds, sitting on a shoe
One flew away and then there were two.
Two little ladybirds, looking for some fun
One flew away and then there was one.
One little ladybirds, hiding behind the sun
One flew away and then there was none.