Dear [first_name],

Volunteer Needed for Book Award Program

Since 1982, the Book Award Program has honored high achieving young women - students who have been top scholars in high school as well as talented performers in extracurricular areas. The Book Award Program allows teachers, parents, and students to get to know Wellesley better. Many thanks to Allyson Haut '80 for capably and enthusiastically leading the CWC Book Award Program for several years. Allyson is ready to pass the baton. Could you be our next program leader? To learn about the activities and time commitment of this volunteer opportunity, contact VP Patricia Mell '75.

10:00AM - 1:00PM Sat 7 Sept 2019

After our summer hiatus we meet to discuss The Lowland by Pulitzer Prize winner Jhumpa Lahiri. Set in Calcutta and America in the late 1960's, the book is a powerful depiction of a family torn apart by politics and tragedy.

RSVP to bookclub@chicagowellesleyclub.org.

Note: We will be making our reading list for the year at this meeting, so come with your selections and be ready to "sell" them to the group. We welcome all types of books, but thought it might be interesting to include a few titles by women Nobel Laureates, Chicago authors, and Wellesley writers. We try to select books under 300 pages as much as possible, so that everyone can finish them within a month.
