WCLA Book Club

The WCLA Book Club is open to all Wellesley alumnae and includes a wide range of ages. The Club meets one Sunday a month. We read a wide variety of genres and try to keep a good mix of fiction and nonfiction. Books and dates for each month are picked at the preceding month's meeting. Anyone who wants to be added to the book club distribution list is welcome to join!

Book for March: We picked a nonfiction title The Underground Girls of Kabul by Jenny Nordberg, who covers the uncommon story of Afghani girls being raised as boys within families in the country that don't have sons. I've listened to the first few chapters on audiobook, and they were very compelling.

Date: Sunday, March 18, 2018

Time: 1-3pm

Location: Central Court at LACMA, between the LACMA Cafe and the bookstore

5905 Wilshire Blvd, Los Angeles, CA 90036

Parking: Either in the LACMA garage ($12) or street parking around LACMA at meters which on Sundays are typically free.

RSVP: Ottavia Montingelli

Welcome Tea for Admitted Students, Wellesley Class of '22

Please join us in welcoming newly-admitted students and answering any questions they and their parents may have about Wellesley. We'd love to see alums, particularly from more recent Classes, who can share on their student experiences, their diverse perspectives on the college, and the benefits of the vast Wellesley alumnae network with these potential future WCLA members!

Our WCLA tea is a great way for admitted students to have first-hand experience with Wellesley alumane since it's not easy for California students to attend Spring Open Campus.

Date: Sunday, April 15, 2018

Time: 2pm

Location: Private home of Los Angeles alumnae; location provided upon rsvp.

RSVPs: Please check the WCLA website for event registration (due to be live by Friday, March 9).

Light refreshments will be served.

Please register for the event so that we can anticipate guest count; no cost.

For questions, please contact Rebecca Nounou.
