Dear [first_name],

June was an exciting month for those who travelled to the college for Reunion with a huge turnout from the Classes of 3's and 8's and, locally, for those who joined SIG get-togethers for the WAAD & WLAN 15th Annual High Tea Quinceañera (featuring Wellesley College Alumnae Association guests Lesley Robertson, Tracey Cameron, and Mared Alicea-Westort), the WIE Happy Hour featuring Wellesley College Career Community Advisor Destiny Barletta, the WAPA parade cheering meetup at LA Pride, and the Friends of Art Huntington Tour!

We also had our WCLA Annual Board Meeting and are excited about our expanded board and new ideas for programming in the coming year. Many thanks to our host Julia Weinstein '73! Also, many, many thanks to Erika Spitzer who has served as our WCLA President for four (4) years; we are very grateful that she will remain on our board as Past President.

Looking ahead to our signature holiday party, we'd love you to let us know what you want! We are taking a quick poll to see if you prefer Saturday night cocktails or Sunday afternoon tea. Please click here!

We are thrilled by our alumnae response to the call to action for Book Awards. Special thanks to Nikke Finke '75 who was among the first to respond and donated 8 books. Thanks, also, to two additional alums, Jean Billyou '88 and Joi Rideout '82, who responded in June. Because of the tremendous response, we not only filled all requests for spring 2018, but we have 17 sponsored books to award in the coming year!

Our board is still looking for a Membership Chair and a Website Manager (Database), and you can learn more about open positions here. If interested, please email WCLosAngeles@alum.wellesley.edu.
We hope you will connect with our Wellesley community this summer at the Student Send-Off on August 19 or at a SIG meetup.

Best wishes,
Your WCLA Board
