UPCOMING EVENTS

WCLA Book Club - November

For November we've picked Sisters in Law: How Sandra Day O'Connor and Ruth Bader Ginsburg went to the Supreme Court and Changed the World by Linda R. Hirshman. We will be meeting in the usual location as long as there is still seating available there. The construction project in that area of the museum and the closure of the LACMA Cafe means that our usual table and chairs may soon be removed. There is additional seating around the LACMA entrance area, including by the Levitated Mass exhibit, so we'll relocate there if necessary. If you come and can't locate us, make sure to call my cell (323-336-5391).

Date: Sunday, November 17

Time: 1-3pm

Location: The Los Angeles County Museum of Art (LACMA) Central Court, between the LACMA Cafe and the bookstore, 5905 Wilshire Blvd, Los Angeles, CA 90036

Parking: Either in the LACMA garage ($12) or street parking around LACMA at meters which on Sundays are typically free.

The Plato Society of Los Angeles

For your consideration brought to you by two energetic Wellesley grads.

From Nancy Bott '64 & Sue Allen '47:

We have been members of the PLATO
Society of Los Angeles for many years and enjoy it so much that we think more people should know about it. The heart and soul of the Society are our peer-led study discussion groups known as SDGs. The SDGs cover a wide range of topics including the Arts, Science, History, and much more. They meet for two hours once a week and have in-depth discussions in seminar-style classes at our office located in Westwood Village. About 400 women and men design, conduct, and take part in our SDGs. There are usually about twenty-four choices in each trimester. Each member is responsible for leading the discussion one week and for preparing for the discussion every week. About 80% of us are retired. The other 20% have flexible work schedules. We come from a wide variety of experiences in live and various career paths. In addition, we hold monthly colloquia that feature renowned speakers, member-led lunch-time lectures, foreign travel, local cultural events, retreats, and numerous extracurricular activities that complement our academic programs. The icing on the cake is the congeniality of the group.

Look us up at www.platola.org or contact Nancy at nancybott@verizon.net
