The Los Angeles group has 70 interviews requested so far and 30 completed. The Orange County group also has unassigned interviews (If that's too far, use Skype!). To learn more, click here.

Wellesley Jewish Alumnae Announcement

The Wellesley Jewish Alumnae group is excited to host their next Shabbat Across the Miles! Shabbat Across the Miles is an event in which alums around the world get together for Shabbat at the same time. The idea is to host events that build connections among alumnae who live near each other, while being a part of our global community.

- The group is looking for alums in each city who can host a meal or an activity at their homes, work, or community centers, to which local Wellesley alumnae can be invited. The type of event is up to the host.
- Past events have included a sit-down dinner, pot luck dinner, challah baking, hamantaschen making, and a wine tasting. You can choose to host on your own, ask participants to bring items, or ask WJA to find a co-host to join you. It's totally up to you.
- Email wjaprogramming@alum.wellesley.edu or WJAPresident@alum.wellesley.edu for information.
• Please email WCLosAngeles@alum.wellesley.edu if you would like to be a local rep and join the WCLA Board.
