Dear [first_name],

• UPDATES: A couple of changes in response to new California state guidelines that non-essential gatherings are to be limited to no more than 250 people and smaller events should proceed only if the organizers can implement social distancing of 6 feet per person.

  o The Young Alum Happy Hour on March 13 is cancelled.
  o The WCLA Book Club on March 15 is cancelled; the book club is communicating directly to its members via email.

• As we all continue to monitor the Coronavirus/COVID-19 developments, the WCLA wants to keep you informed of how we're taking thoughtful and precautionary steps to care for one another. For WCLA events, we suggest gathering with social distancing and mindful of current health recommendations and/or meeting virtually/remotely.

• For the Career Conversation on March 22, we have set up a Zoom conference that we will share with registered guests. For Circles, we sent an email to facilitators with information about guidelines to use a Zoom account provided by WCAA for the option of remote access.

• You can follow along here to see the latest updates from the College on how they are responding to the rapidly evolving public health crisis of COVID-19.

• We will continue to keep you informed of any changes to our events as we monitor and follow the directives of reputable resources, specifically, the Centers for Disease Control (CDC), the World Health Organization (WHO), and local governmental organizations as well as the College.

We echo President Paula Johnson's thoughts that we will get through this together.

For sure, the ties formed at Wellesley are strong and endure, and we hope you feel the support of our Wellesley alum community.

As always, please reach out with any suggestions or questions by contacting: WCLosAngeles@alum.wellesley.edu.

Stay well and safe,
Your WCLA Board
