

Wellesley College Club of Los Angeles

Dear [first_name],

We're thrilled at the response we received for Wellesley Circles! Over 80 Alums attended the kick-offs! You can still register to join a Circle in your neighborhood. Registration is open until November 1 and the Circles launch in January.

We've got more super exciting things coming up at WCLA in October! Check out these important updates and event details below:

- Wellesley Circles - Registrations for our new initiative are pouring in and are open until November 1st! Wellesley Circles are a great opportunity for alums to gather once a month in small groups of 6-12 people to help empower and support one another personally and professionally. These gatherings are also neighborhood-based and won't require you to battle LA traffic!
- Day to Make a Difference - We hope you can volunteer with Day to Make a Difference event on October 19 at Harvest Home. A few spots remain open.
- Julie Lindahl '88, author, is visiting from Sweden - Julie is the author of The Pendulum: A Granddaughter's Search for Her Family's Forbidden Nazi Past in which she details the journey she took after discovering that her grandfather was in the Nazi SS. The Pendulum grapples with the circumstances of her grandparents' choices and the consequences across generations. She will be speaking at events at UCLA Law and Claremont McKenna College. We hope you can come out for one of these special events.
- The WIE's alum film festival is looking for a volunteer graphic designer to create a logo for the festival. If you are interested, please contact Beth Schaaf and Emily Peters.

As always, please reach out with any suggestions or questions by contacting: WCLosAngeles@alum.wellesley.edu.

We hope to see you at an event soon!

WCLA Book Club - October

For October we've picked The Windows of Malabar Hill by Sujata Massey. We will be meeting in the usual location as long as there is still seating available there. The construction project in that area of the museum and the closure of the LACMA Cafe means that our usual table and chairs may soon be removed. There is additional seating around the LACMA entrance area, including by the Levitated Mass exhibit, so we'll relocate there if necessary. If you come and can't locate us, make sure to call my cell (323-336-5391).

Date: Sunday, October 20

Time: 1-3pm

Location: The Los Angeles County Museum of Art (LACMA) Central Court, between the LACMA Cafe and the bookstore, 5905 Wilshire Blvd, Los Angeles, CA 90036

Parking: Either in the LACMA garage ($12) or street parking around LACMA at meters which on Sundays are typically free.

RSVP: Email WCLA Book Club

THE PLATO SOCIETY of LOS ANGELES

For your consideration brought to you by two energetic Wellesley grads.

From Nancy Bott '64 & Sue Allen '47:

We have been members of the PLATO Society of Los Angeles for many years and enjoy it so much that we think more people should know about it. The heart and soul of the Society are our peer-led study discussion groups known as SDGs. The SDGs cover a wide range of topics including the Arts, Science, History, and much more. They meet for two hours once a week and have in-depth discussions in seminar-style classes at our office located in Westwood Village. About 400 women and men design, conduct, and take part in our SDGs. There are usually about twenty-four choices in each trimester. Each member is responsible for leading the discussion one week and for preparing for the discussion every week. About 80% of us are retired. The other 20% have flexible work schedules. We come from a wide variety of experiences in live and various career paths. In addition, we hold monthly colloquia that feature renowned speakers, member-led lunch-time lectures, foreign travel, local cultural events, retreats, and numerous extracurricular activities that complement our academic programs. The icing on the cake is the congeniality of the group.

Look us up at www.platola.org or contact Nancy at nancybott@verizon.net
