

Hello my students,

I miss you all so much! It has been so hard not seeing and talking with you. I have enjoyed getting your emails, keep them coming. I hope you are all feeling well, and as always, I hope you are reading like crazy! Thought I'd show you pictures of my two cats that I am excited to be spending more time with. The one I am a squeezing is Spazzy and the one in the box is Snoopy. Yes, Spazzy is the one from my story.

I also found some picture of the fun we had at the beginning of the year. I wish I had pictures of all of you but I didn't get that far. Keep having fun while you are at home and let me know what books you are reading. I know I am getting a lot more reading done.

I plan to schedule a Zoom meeting for us to all get together as a class. I will send out the invitation in your school email and to your parents.

Miss you, Mrs. Winkler
