

Vocabulary Chapter 4

Match each definition to the corresponding vocabulary word. Write your answers on the lines provided.

1. decompose _____

A. Uses place value to exchange equal amounts when renaming a number.

2. Distributive Property _____

B. This states that you can multiply the addends of a number and then add the products.

3. estimate _____

C. Rounding factors to their greatest place results in this.

4. factor _____

D. Finding the product for the tens and ones separately, then adding them together results in this.

5. multiple _____

E. A number that is multiplied by another number.

6. partial product _____

F. The product of a number and any whole number results in this.

7. regroup _____

G. To break numbers down into parts.