Discussion

Mr. Harris reviewed with those present the order by the Governor to close school as of March 18 including the order to prepare for the possibility of distance learning for a period of weeks beginning March 30. He also explained the reasoning for categorizing March 18-20 as snow days and how meal offerings and school age day care were going to continue under special circumstances.

Mr. Paulson and Mr. McBroom shared with those present some tentative thoughts on what teacher training was going to look like the following week and what the distance learning modes for kids could include if so directed by the Governor.

The rest of the meeting was devoted to general Q and A about the mechanics of the closure, distance learning, and potential impacts/ramifications of an extended closure.
