

WORLD GEOGRAPHY

Priority Standards

1. Demonstrate understanding of geographic concepts and processes.
2. Interpret and analyze maps and mapped data.
3. Interpret and analyze quantitative geospatial data.
4. Interpret and analyze qualitative geospatial data.
5. Demonstrate effective communication through speaking, writing, and listening.

Course Content

1. Concepts and processes in physical geography
 - Maps
 - Weather, climate, and biomes
 - Plate tectonics, landforms, rivers, and water bodies
2. Concepts and Processes in human geography
 - Distribution and demography
 - Movement and migration
3. Concepts and processes in cultural geography
 - Language
 - Religion
 - Ethnicity and nationality
4. Concepts and processes in political geography
 - States and boundaries
 - International organizations and relations
5. Concepts and processes in economic and urban geography
 - Agriculture
 - Industry
 - Services and cities
 - Development