

Welcome to our distance-learning classroom!

Weekly Planner Week 3

M.E.S. Grade: 3

Material Pick-up: April 24th

Turn-in: May 15th

Student Time Expectation per day: 2-3 hours

Dear 3rd Grade Parents and Guardians,

We miss you! Please stay safe and healthy during this unprecedented time. To help you, we have created a simple schedule you can use along with work packets to keep our children focused on their education while at home. Below, you will find the schedule and other activities you might try.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Bell, Mr. Baumann, and Mrs. Graves

DAILY LEARNING EXPECTATIONS

Here are some learning expectations while completing the school-to-home packets:

1. Most important- do your best!
2. Please stay on task daily with assignments and complete them. The work you complete will be reflected on your trimester 3 report card.
3. If you fall behind on daily assignments, please do your best to establish a catch-up plan to stay on target with your learning goals.
4. As the parent, it is your responsibility to make sure that your child keeps up with daily assignments.
5. Keep a calendar of your schoolwork to remind your child about assignments and due dates. Organization is key! Turn off the TV and set up an area in the home to keep your schoolwork in order.

SUGGESTED TIME SEGMENTS

- 20 minutes writing in your journal/binder paper or word document. See suggestions below.
- 20 minutes reading a text of your choice and writing a summary of what you read. See the reading log below.
- 40 minutes working on the reading/writing packet. (Your Turn book and spelling packet)
- 60 minutes working on one lesson in math each day and playing math fluency games. (Examples: Khan Academy, <https://www.coolmath.com/>, card games like "Sort It", "Make it Big", or dice games like Yahtzee.)
- 30 minutes of P.E. - Be sure to get physical exercise but stay 6 feet or more away from people outside of your home. Ex. Ride a bike, go for a hike, jog or if you have computer access www.gonoodle.com.
