A NOTE FROM THE TEACHER

Hello!

This week we are beginning to shift our focus to the ILCp and ILCi Google Classroom. We will be updating this weekly with the activities and links to specialists. Go to: classroom.google.com and enter code we sent to you to enter the classroom.

If your family would prefer to keep going with whatever system you have in place, please do!

Also, look for an email with a Continuous Learning Plan for your child. Please provide feedback by Wednesday the 29th. Thank you!!
