

When I need to sharpen my pencil, I raise my hand and ask the teacher.

I always wear shoes at school.

When I am done eating lunch, I take my trash to the garbage can.

When I am inside, I talk at a level 1 or 2.

When I need to use the bathroom, I raise my hand and ask the teacher.

I keep my hands down even when someone has hair that looks soft.

When I feel angry, I ask to go to my quiet place.

I can add 2 interesting comments to what my teacher says every 15 minutes. I can write them down so I don't forget.

When it is 55 degrees or less, I take my coat to recess.

If someone looks ugly I will not tell them because it hurts their feelings.
