Seniors April

From Mrs. Murray

Nice job seniors! By now, you should have heard from all of your colleges. Making the final decision can actually be more difficult than completing those applications. Let me know if you need help. In order to ascertain a means of evaluating colleges without having the opportunity to visit campus, The New York Times recommended various ways for seniors to research their

First Day of School

We use the beginning of school to build community and set the tone for the year:

- Convocation
- House Induction
- House Meetings and House Group Welcome
- Class Meet and Greet with Faculty
- ASB Assembly and Icebreaker Preparation

Goals of the House System

1. Enjoy a strong sense of tradition and school pride and have fun!
2. Cultivate student and faculty servant leadership and mentoring.
3. Demonstrate a personal and relational faith in Christ among and with students.
4. Spur the development of virtue in the community.
5. Express love, care and support to each member of the community.

House in the Upper School

1. WHAT are they and what do they do?
2. HOW do they work?
3. HOW are students sorted?
4. CONTENT they provide?

Icebreaker

- The goals are:
  - to have fun,
  - to enfold freshmen and new students into the Upper School,
  - and to build House and School spirit and unity.
- Students spend a lot of time bonding with their new House and competing in challenges.

Involvement

- There are lots of opportunities for students to serve as freshmen or new students.
- There will be Involvement Fairs early in September
- One female and one male Freshman Class Student Council Representative will be selected through application early September.
