SPONSORSHIP OF FEES

The parents/legal guardians of an enrolled JIS student are responsible for ensuring that their financial obligations to JIS are met in full and on time, even if fees are sponsored by an employer or organization.

Applicants whose school fees are paid by a sponsoring organization (Company-sponsored, Embassy/International Institution-sponsored) must submit a letter of sponsorship which is signed by the Financial Officer of the organization and stamped with the organization's seal. School fees invoices shall be sent to the parent and the person or party identified on the sponsorship letter.

TERMS OF BUSINESS

PAYMENT

Payment of 2020-21 fees is due in full by July 1, 2020. For students admitted after June 18, 2020, payment is due within 14 days of the invoice date. Fees are payable in Rupiah only, in accordance with instructions specified on the invoice. For the 2020-21 School Year only, quarterly or semesterly payment terms will be available for self-paying (non-company and non-Embassy sponsored parents). Please contact Account Receivable (ar@jisedu.or.id) for payment schedule.

PRO-RATIO

For self-paying parents (non-company and non-Embassy sponsored parents), once a student enrolls at JIS fees are payable in full for the whole quarter or semester even if the student is withdrawn early.

For sponsored families (company and Embassy sponsored parents) once a student enrolls at JIS fees are payable in full for the whole semester even if the student is withdrawn early.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

The School has limited funds to provide partial financial assistance with tuition fees for returning families who are facing temporary financial hardship. Applications must be made by completing forms available from the Business Office by the deadline of June 30. Refer to JISNet for full details. Financial assistance is not available for new students.

BANK CHARGES

All costs incurred in making bank transfers for the payment of fees are for the account of the transmitter and not the School.

REFUNDS

Refunds for self-paying families (non-company and non-Embassy sponsored parents) both quarterly or semesterly school fees will be granted according to the following guidelines:

Quarterly

Attendance of any day in a quarter constitutes full attendance for the quarter and no refunds for that quarter will be given.

- First Quarter: Enrolled students who withdraw by July 31, 2020 will receive a full refund of the quarter's tuition, capital and bus fees. No refunds will be given to students who submit a withdrawal notice after July 31, 2020.
- Second Quarter: Enrolled students who withdraw by Aug. 15, 2020 will receive a full refund of the quarter's tuition and bus fees. No refunds will be given to students who submit a withdrawal notice after Aug. 15, 2020.

TERMS OF BUSINESS

REFUNDS

Refunds for company sponsored parents for annual school fees will be granted according to the following guidelines:

- First Semester: Enrolled students who withdraw by July 31, 2020 will receive a full refund of the semester's tuition and bus fees. No refunds will be given to students who submit a withdrawal notice after July 31, 2020. Attendance of any day in a semester constitutes full attendance for the semester and no refunds for that semester will be given.
- Second Semester: Enrolled students who withdraw by December 31, 2020 will receive a full refund of the second semester's tuition and bus fees. No refunds will be given to students who submit a withdrawal notice after December 31, 2020. Attendance of any day in a semester constitutes full attendance for the semester and no refunds for that semester will be given.

Refunds that remain unclaimed four years from the date of entitlement will be transferred to the JIS Operating Fund. In the event that a student is temporarily withdrawn for a quarter or semester, parents can opt to:

1. Pay the annual capital Fee and tuition fees for the quarter or semester of non-attendance to maintain placement, or
2. Withdraw and request that the student is placed on the wait pool for readmission at the start of the following quarter or semester.

FORCE MAJEURE

In the event of any inability or delay in the School's ability to deliver or perform any or all of its obligation under this Agreement resulting from force majeure (including inability to provide the educational services online or remotely) as causes beyond the School's reasonable control and occurring without its fault or negligence, including (without limitations): acts of nature, fire, flood, an outbreak of diseases, epidemic, pandemic, concerns with local or national safety and security, actions of government or government restrictions, riots, sabotage, changes in legislation directly related to the implementation of the School's services, wars, and insurrections, provided that, the School has acted in good faith to minimize the effect of the force majeure, you hereby acknowledge that your obligations under this Agreement shall continue and remain valid, and the School will have no liability in respect of any such inability or delay in its provision of services under this Agreement. The School shall notify the occurrence of the force majeure event within a period of no later than 14 (fourteen) days from the date of the occurrence of force majeure to the parents/respective guardians.

Subject to the clause above, if the school has to close for reasons of force majeure, the Head of School will withhold all tuition refunds until the settlement of outstanding liabilities has been completed. Money left after these settlements would be divided proportionally among parents, companies and organizations to be credited to their school's account(s). No cash refund should be expected. Accounts credits would be maintained for four (4) years after the School closure at which time they will be reverted to the School's general fund.

PENALTIES FOR LATE PAYMENT

WITHDRAWAL OF OFFER

For newly admitted students, if school fees remain outstanding 14 days after the due date, the school reserves the right to withdraw the student's enrollment.

INTEREST

Penalty Interest will be charged on any unpaid balance of the annual tuition and other fees, at a rate to be determined by the Head of School – currently 2% per month. Penalty interest is payable upon presentation of an invoice for such interest.

SUSPENSION

Students will be subject to suspension for non-payment of fees, unless the Chief Financial and Operations Officer has been advised in writing of any extenuating circumstances that have given rise to the delay in payment. Report cards and transcripts will be withheld until all outstanding fees have been paid in full, including any penalty interest.

LEGAL ACTION

In the event that a family withdraws without settling their accounts with the school, the School reserves the right to seek legal recourse to recover all amounts due through the Indonesian Courts or international debt collection agencies.
