

AMERICAN GOVERNMENT HONORS - 2106320

Grade 12, Credit .50

In addition to the material presented in the standard American Government course, the Honors credit places a greater emphasis on essay writing. For example, Honors American Government students will be required to research and articulate political positions, debate opposition to those positions, and engage in analysis of political leaders' behaviors over the course of their careers.