

SPORTS OFFICIATING 1502500

Grades 9-12, Credit.50

To provide students with introductory knowledge, interpretations, skills and mechanical techniques of officiating. Sports officials must be able to bring control to chaos; understand fairness; promote safety and encourage good sportsmanship. A sports official must have the positive characteristics of a police officer, lawyer, judge, accountant, reporter, athlete, and diplomat.