

DRAWING II 0104350

Grades 9-12, Credit .5

Development and application of skills acquired in Drawing I. Introduction to advanced compositional development influenced by integrated art history study. Literacy and technology skills are used in conjunction with drawing and combine to provide more complex and content-driven assignments. Successful completion of Drawing I and II provide a solid foundation for advanced college-level coursework.