

DRAWING I 0104340

Grades 9-12, Credit .5

A proven and data-driven five-step approach to increase student ability to see and draw as an artist while also engaging the creative right side of the brain. Systematic and comprehensive curriculum covers all current National and Florida standards for the Visual Arts. Developed from the latest research in Art Education this Drawing class includes a study of brain function in art making in addition to established elements and principles of art and design. Introduction to a variety of materials in addition to solid foundational skills including composition, design, value, perspective, proportion, negative space, contour, and gesture drawing.