

This week, you'll watch a video about taking a driver's test, then complete some exercises. There is also an online grammar exercise to try this week.

Click or copy and paste the link to go to the lesson:

<https://learningenglish.voanews.com/a/lets-learn-english-lesson-28-i-passed-it/3487865.html>

After you listen:

1. Scroll down to the SPEAKING exercise. Listen and repeat. Focus on correct pronunciation and syllable stress.
2. Scroll down to the PRONUNCIATION exercise. Listen and practice.
3. Scroll down to the CONVERSATION exercise. Listen and read the dialogue. Practice the dialogue.
4. Scroll down to the QUIZ. Click on each video and listen, then choose the correct answer. There are 6 questions.
5. Finally, please answer the questions below in complete sentences.

Example: Did Anna pass her driver's test the first time?

X No (not a complete sentence)

Correct: No, she did not pass. or No, she didn't pass.

Questions:

1. What can Anna drive very well?
2. How did Anna feel about driving in Washington, D.C. traffic?
3. Why was Anna talking to herself?
4. Why was everyone honking at Anna and John? (honk is the sound of the car's horn. To hear it: <https://nypost.com/video/dog-hilariously-honks-horn-while-waiting-for-his-owner/>)

Dog hilariously honks horn while waiting for his owner

This pooch needs to practice patience. Watch the funny moment a dog, sitting in the driver's seat of a parked car in Melbourne, Australia, lays on the horn for 20 seconds. Eventually the pooch...
