This is what the page looks like. I will tell you which issue we will explore. You will click on the issue.

Here is where the activities will be located.

The screenshot shows the MyBigWorld website interface. At the top, the navigation bar includes the Scholastic logo, the site name 'MyBigWorld with Clifford', and links for 'All Issues', 'Videos', 'Spring', 'Plants', 'Insects', and 'Summer'. A search bar with the placeholder 'Enter Keyword' is on the right. Below the navigation bar, a yellow banner displays 'March 2020' and the issue title 'What Should He Wear?'. A large orange arrow points from this banner to the 'Extend the Lesson' section. This section contains three activity cards: 'What's the Weather?' (VIDEO), 'Dance Break: Weather' (VIDEO), and 'Dressing for the Weather' (GAME). To the left of these activities is the 'Explore This Issue' section, which features a cover image of a boy in a raincoat and hat. To the right is the 'Also in March' section, showing a cover for 'A Teeny Tiny Nest'. The bottom of the screen displays a macOS dock with various application icons.
