Welcome: Brian Bolinder

End of Schoolyear Report (Mr. Stromberg, Mr. Plant and Mrs. Damron)

- Overall consensus is parents, students and teachers are working together through our online schooling
- New school instruction for students will end May 15 and makeup work will be from May 18-29
- Remediation for those students who have an “I” (incomplete) can change up to September 29, 2020
- Starting May 11-May 29, parent/students may request a passing grade rather than a letter grade.
- Communication between parent, student and teacher has been key in making this a success
- 4th term in 2020 will be unique for College/Universities scholarships
- Counselors are preparing the 9th grade Evening of Excellence
- Summer PE will be canceled
- Online courses are available

Trust Land Updates-(Mr. Stromberg):

- Expenditures have been different due to coronavirus. Every school in the district is in the same situation
- Community Council will review trust lands at the beginning of the new school year and do an addendum in the fall
- Carry over is approximately $25,000-$30,000

Community Council Elections

- 5-6 openings for the 2020-2021 school year
- Announcement for elections in September of 2020
- Election held October of 2020

Motion to adjourn by Brynn Clinger and Jennifer Carr seconded the motion
