

Athletics, Arts and Clubs

Athletics

The NJSIAA has announced that due to high risk of infection spread, they have advised against the resumption of the spring sports season. Click here for the most recent NJSIAA COVID-19 updates.

Arts

While COVID-19 compelled us to cancel all arts rehearsals and performances, our annual One Acts Festival lives on. Several student-written and produced one act plays will be performed as audio plays in late May. Click here for details.

Clubs

Several Delbarton clubs found ways to stay active during Virtual Delbarton:

- On April 27, the Research and Science Club hosted a Virtual Science Fair that attracted 261 presenters and 22 schools. Click here for organizer Will Li '21's interview with Neil Cavuto P'20 on Fox Business.
- French Club hosted an online French poetry contest.
- Anglers Club members enjoyed some excellent fishing while keeping their social distance.
