

June 2020

Dear Students and Parents,

Welcome to Marymount! While the summer is a time for reflection and intellectual renewal for our students, a time for recreation and relaxation, we are hopeful that it is also a time of preparation for the academic year ahead. Specifically, we are hoping that the summer offers opportunities for reading. Because of the value we place on reading, the English Department has implemented a summer reading requirement for all students.

One book is assigned to all students in each grade level, 9 through 12, as indicated in the list below. Additionally, each student is required to read one novel of his or her choice. Reading lists with suggestions are available by clicking on this link: High School Reading Suggestions

The assigned reading for each incoming grade level is:

GRADE 9 I am Malala - Malala Yousafzai

GRADE 10 Will You Please be Quiet, Please and Other Stories - Raymond Carver

GRADE 11 1984 - George Orwell

GRADE 12 Perfume - Patrick Süskind: students enrolled in IB Literature (HL and SL) and in IB Language & Literature (HL and SL)

The Hate You Give - Angie Thomas: students enrolled in IB English B (HL and SL)

You can purchase these books online or visit one of the English Language bookshops in the center of Rome!

Once the school year begins, your English teacher will administer a written assessment based on your summer reading. Please annotate the text while you read: underline the most important passages and key quotations, notate vocabulary, and to put comments to yourself in the margins. Make sure you bring the books with you on the first day of school.

Have a wonderful summer and happy reading!

Sincerely,

The English Department
